Through February 17: "Hell on the Halfshell"-

"Hell on the Halfshell" offers an evening of comedy and fantasy split in two in order to expose pearls of wisdom and wit from two eras. George Bernard Shaw's "Don Juan in Hell" grapples with superman philosophy, the battle of the sexes, and a devil that can't stop dancing with this turn of the century masterpiece. Nearly one hundred years later, David Mamet penned "Bobby Gould in Hell" to further explore the machinations of his favorite character of Speed The Plow and his search for twisted atonement and forgiveness. This interrogation will leave you laughing and thinking as only Mamet can do. Your views of Hell and the World will be forever changed... Friday & Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 7 p.m. Tickets are $15.00 (students $12.00). Sol Theatre Project, 1140 NE Flagler Dr., Fort Lauderdale.
